

John Blancit Shacklett (1742-1809), was a private in the Westmoreland (PA) militia, Continental Line, and in Capt. Nicholas Shinn's Company, Rangers on the Frontier. A 1979 cemetery directory of Fayette County, PA lists him in a Laurel Hill Cemetery near the Cheat River. At the time, the burying ground was said to be in poor condition, and it may be lost by now.